CIRCULATING THROUGHOUT THE VAST AGRICULTURAL AREA OF PALM BEACH COUNTY

Around The Glades

(By Paul Rardin)

Have you ever seen a mechanical bean harvester work? They're almost uncanny. Last week seven of these new machines harvested 160 acres of beans on the muck in four days for a cost of $13 per ton. Compare that with the hand picking cost of $65 to $70 per ton and you find quite a saving.

Pete Clemons and Q. J. Hazell are now operating the Glades Cattle Market, located between Pahokee and Belle Glade on SR15. Since its inception the market has been operated by the Glades Livestock Market Association composed of many of the Glades' leading cattle-men.

John E. Wilson is all smiles these days as his new distribution plant and service station begin to form on the site of the old Pure Oil plant on Main street in Pahokee. When completed the new Pure Oil place will be one of the most modern in Palm Beach county with a service station constructed to fit the triangle between Main Street and the soon-to-be constructed Larrimore Road.

Harvest Sales, Inc., in Pahokee under the direction of Robert Mackey sent out a record load of squash last week when they loaded 735 bushels of Acorn squash in one car. The price wasn't bad either, Mr. Mackey said, in recording $3.00 to the grower.

Former Pahokee Police Chief Leon Guthrie is in the mercantile business on the west coast of Florida, near Tampa. He recently purchased a grocery store and filling station and moved from Pahokee last week to take charge of the new place this week.

Thurmond Knight of Lake Park was recently elected president of the North Palm Beach County Realtors. Thurmond is a former resident of Pahokee and a 33-year Rotarian. His friends will be happy to know that he has been named the head man of the North County group of realtors.

Official word from the cane producing area of Louisiana is to the effect that they had hoped to mine $50,000 tons of sugar this season but will be lucky to get 450,000. The decrease in tonnage is due to severe weather conditions brought about by the fall's hurricane.

Visitors at the 441 Steak House in Pahokee will be delighted with the new appearance of the interior. New drapes have been made and hung and the popular restaurant is to receive a new coat of paint. A new floor covering is also in the offing for the 441.

RECEIVED BURNS

Grey Hollon, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hollon, Pahokee, is reported to be improving from 2nd and 3rd degree burns on his leg suffered while burning trash in his yard this past Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Scroggin and family of Nashville, Tenn., were the Thanksgiving holiday guests of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Maxson.

Cadet Cowart Is Named Lieutenant

Cadet Thomas Michael Cowart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cowart, Pahokee, has been appointed a lieutenant in the Cadet Corps of Admiral Farragut Academy, St. Petersburg, Florida. Lieutenant Cowart is commanding officer of the Fourth Company.

Lieut. Cowart is in the top fifth of his class academically, in Naval Science has attained the rating of Quartermaster, Second Class, is a member of the Academy varsity football, basketball, and baseball team. He has been awarded the Radford Star, the highest all-around award at the Academy. He is a member of the Academy rifle and sailing teams, and this year is vice-president of his class.

Flood Plain Map Idea Is Presented

County commissioners heard a proposal Monday to draft a comprehensive county flood plain map that would show the top potential flood level at any point in Palm Beach County.

The plan for the map was presented by County Engineer George Frost and John Adair of Lake Worth, an engineer and a school board trustee.

A developer looking at the map, Frost said, would be able to determine how much elevation work he would be required to do in any particular spot in the county.

Adair said he had been working on the idea for four years.

"This will be more and more helpful as population spreads to the unincorporated areas," Frost said. He added any layman would be able to read the contour map.

Commissioners were in favor of the plan. However, they tabled it until E. W. (Bud) Weaver, who will succeed outgoing Commissioner Paul Rardin in January, is seated on the commission.

Commissioner E. F. Van Kessel was doubtful that it would be fair to ask cities along the coast to help pay for the flood plain map. He said they "won't benefit from this."

Adair said the map might prevent problems which cost all taxpayers money. He also said Dade and Broward counties already have flood plain planning.

County Engineer Frost pointed out the map could be drawn up to include either the entire county or only those trouble spots plagued with flooding.

Don't Throw Away Useful Articles

If you are cleaning out old toys to make room for Santa's new ones, don't throw them away—the Palm Beach County Rehabilitation Center needs old toys, furniture, appliances and newspapers in their work with the mentally retarded. The Pahokee Womens Club is working with the center to collect these articles before Christmas. Interested parties are asked to contact Mrs. Lewis Friend at 924-7236.

Mrs. C. B. Jones and Alton Jones were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Jones in Belle Glade on Thanksgiving.

Canal Point Will Honor Paul Rardin

The entire community area is invited and urged to help observe Paul Rardin Day in the Community Building at 12:00 Noon, December 13, 1964. This is for everyone throughout the Canal Point and neighboring areas to share in. If you feel yourself a relative newcomer you are most cordially welcomed to attend and meet this lovely couple and friends of all. The dinner, which will be a favorite basket lunch affair, will begin promptly at Noon.

The program, with Phil O'Connell as guest speaker, which is to begin as soon as everyone is served, will highlight Mr. Rardin's 20 years of Public Service as County Commissioner of District 5 of Palm Beach County.

After the dinner and program, those desiring will go on to Dedication of Paul Rardin Park on State Road 715, south of Pahokee, to be followed by a reception and Open House at the Glades Office Building near Belle Glade immediately following the dedication ceremonies at the Park.

This day of fellowship will be an occasion for neighbors and friends to share with the Rardins their appreciation of his service to the District and the convictions for which he has stood.

This Testimonial Dinner is being planned by representatives of the following organizations: First Baptist Church, Canal Point Methodist Church, Canal Point Baptist Church, The Lions Club, Canal Point Garden Club, Parent Teacher's Association of Canal Point School, and a host of neighbors and friends.

Beans $6.40 Hamper Monday, $5.35 Tues.

The highest price of the season was paid for green snap beans on Monday of this week at Lake Okechobee Farmers Cooperative in Canal Point when they sold for $6.40 per hamper. The price held fairly well on some more Harvesters on Tuesday when they sold at a dandy price of $5.35.

Price on corn tumbled down to $2.00 during the past few days when the production became heavy. Some growers say that the yield is not what it has been in past years.

Celery has been going along at an average price of around $2.75 per crate according to official announcement and growers are said to be fairly happy with this return. Cucumbers being brought in off the sand lands of Martin county are selling for around $3.00 with the demand growing a little stronger.

ENJOY HUNTING TRIP

The following families enjoyed the Thanksgiving holidays on a hunting trip near Orlando: Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. George Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilkinson, Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Graham, Claude Shirley and J. C. Blanton.

Consider Safety In Your Presents

Consider the safety of your children when buying them Christmas toys. Mrs. Marylou Shirar, Assistant Home Demonstration Agent, suggests you ask the following questions before you buy toys to be sure they are safe.

Has poisonous lead paint been used on the toys? Do dolls and stuffed animals have button eyes that may be bitten off and swallowed by young children? Does the electrical toy carry the Underwriter's label insuring its safety? Are there operating instructions for this toy? Do metal cars and trucks have sharp corners which can cut the child? Is the child for whom you bought the B B gun or the .22 caliber rifle old enough to learn how to handle a gun safely?

Giving proper consideration to toys before buying them may prevent many accidents.

Pink Ladies Will Serve In Hospital

The Pink Ladies will begin work in the present hospital by the first of the year according to an announcement made at the recent meeting of the Everglades Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Tuesday night in the fellowship hall of the Pahokee First Baptist Church.

The Auxiliary will continue meeting at the Fellowship Hall of the church with no meeting in December. Next meeting will be January 26.

Honor Rotarians For Long Service

The 35th Anniversary of the chartering of the Pahokee Rotary club was celebrated yesterday with a special program under the direction of Past President Paul Rardin, who has been a member of the club for 30 of the 35 years of its existence. Fourteen members of the club were honored for their long time association in Rotary and all, who have been members for more than 15 years, received a gold Rotary International pin marking the number of years they have been in the club.

The memory of Otto Bleech, 23-year Rotarian, who died this year, will be honored when the Board of Directors of the club present Mrs. Bleech with a gold pin denoting Mr. Bleech's 23 years of membership in the club.

In marking the anniversary of the club it was pointed out that Homestead Rotary club was the sponsoring club for formation of the Pahokee group. Here Is What Transpired At Monday's Meeting Of The Palm Beach County Commission

Civic and religious organizations urged county commissioners Monday to take immediate action to establish a new county juvenile detention center.

The Rev. Jack C. Loadman of Lake Park and Rev. L. J. Alford of West Palm Beach asked what happened to the $100,000 commissioners had budgeted last summer for the new center.

Mrs. W. B. Pate of the Palm Beach County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations, and Mrs. R. W. Glasner, representing a Unitarian social committee, also pushed for a new juvenile home.

"We deplore these present facilities," Mrs. Pate said.

She said if boys can be rehabilitated before they become criminals the county would save money in the long run. Commissioner Lake Lytal agreed prompt action is needed.

Commissioner George Warren who also said he was in favor of improving the situation, pointed out the county must still determine the site for a new home and its cost before acting.

County Engineer George Frost said an architect studying the problem has recommended a three-man volunteer group to come up with a plan that would meet needs for the next 20 years.

The present makeshift juvenile detention facility at Palm Beach International Airport has been the scene of several breakouts by juveniles. Last spring, inmates damaged the beds and dormitories in a riot.

Commissioners said funds for a new center will be included in a proposed revenue bond issue for construction of county buildings.

Miss Patsy Keene Honored At Shower

The home of Mrs. Hugo Boe was the scene of a calling shower honoring Miss Patsy Keene bride-elect of John Hundley, Friday, November 27. The honoree greeted guests with her mother, Mrs. Leland Keene and Mrs. Boe and Mrs. John Hundley. Each wore an orchid corsage. Miss Linda Keene sister of the bride elect served at the guest book.

The refreshment table featured an arrangement of silver candelabra, mums, and sweetheart roses, a floral arrangement of roses graced the coffee table in the living room. A silver serving dish was presented by Miss Keene to the hostesses who were: Mrs. Minter Collins, Mrs. Leo Maxwell, Mrs. Robert Hutton, Mrs. H. M. McIntosh, Mrs. W. H. Kemp, Mrs. Robert Simonson, Mrs. J. L. Humphrey, Sr., Mrs. Corley Watson, Mrs. David Unwin and Mrs. Boe.

Scouts Are Making Plans For Trip

Explorers and Senior Scouts of the Gulf Stream Council are beginning to put together a Council-sponsored expedition to the Philmont Scout Ranch near Cimmaron, New Mexico during the month of August next summer.

The trip will include stops at major points of interest enroute such as the Alamo at San Antonio; Carlsbad Caverns; Juarez, Mexico; Taos and Albuquerque.

Arriving at the 138,000 acre ranch near Cimmaron, New Mexico, the 30 boys and three men making up the local contingent will take part in a 12 day trek of Rocky Mountain style camping in country made famous by the early explorers and "Long Hunters."

According to C. M. Gaskins Scout Executive of the 7 County local council, Philmont Ranch offers a challenge to physical stamina and outdoor skills unmatched by any other camp in the world. Wildlife, abundant on the plains sector includes antelope and leison while black tail deer, mountain lion, bear and coyote are found in the more rugged mountain forest of the Sangre de Cristo Range.

A working ranch, although operated by the National Council, BSA, as the largest boys camp in the world, hundreds of head of Hereford cattle, horses and pack burros are maintained, as are facilities for archery, large and small bore riflery, archeology and natural sciences.

Mountain trout fishing, forestry and conservation activity, "panning" for gold, and photography are other interesting program features available at the ranch, Gaskins said.

Reservations for the Expedition are now being taken at the Gulf Stream Council's Service Center. Boys must be 14 years of age and have completed the 8th grade in June to be eligible. A good background of Scout Camping is highly desirable.

Boys with reservations to date include: Rick Stephens and Bill Hunter, Boynton Beach; Ted Matson, Ken Swett, Bruce Nielson, Tim Pruitt, Ed Jarvis, West Palm Beach; Larry Bishop, Lake Park; Mike Ogle, Bill Haas, Jr., Mike Haas; Jupiter; Daniel Dexter and Glenn Wolf of Belle Glade.

Business Census Covers Many Items

Publications resulting from the 1963 Census of Business will provide data covering retail trade, wholesale trade, selected services and public warehousing. The first reports in the "Area" series are now coming off the press, with the last scheduled for February 1965. The "Subject" series are due to begin in December with the last report scheduled for November 1965.

There will also be a "Major Retail Center Statistics" series which will consist of a separate report for each 113 standard metropolitan statistical areas and a summary report. Included will be maps showing the total area covered and defining the central business districts. The first report of this series is expected in January 1965 and the last report in April 1965.

All of the above-mentioned reports will be available for purchase through the Miami Field Office, U. S. Department of Commerce, 1628 Federal Office Building, according to Marion A. Leonard, Director. However, orders are being accepted for "Area" reports only at this time as prices are not yet known for the other reports.

Florida Sun Fiesta To Bring Tourists

MIAMI BEACH—A spectacular Jackie Gleason telecast from Miami Beach last week kicked off the Florida Sun Fiesta, the most ambitious tourist promotional drive ever made by the state.

Details of the Florida Sun Fiesta contest were presented, and the entire Gleason show had a Florida flavor. The contest is based on identification of Florida scenes. Procter & Gamble Co. is offering 1,030 prizes which will be further promoted by magazine advertising, displays in thousands of stores across the country and direct mail distribution of coupons to millions of homes.

Five grand prizes in the Florida Sun Fiesta contest will be Mackle-built Deltona Corp. homes, plus $2,000 toward purchase of the Florida homesteads. Additional prizes will be $1,000 vacations in Florida with the money paid in First National City travelers checks and Sperti sunlamps.

The Florida Development Commission has teamed up with Procter & Gamble for the promotion which is said to be the largest government-business cooperative effort ever tackled in the field of advertising.

Florida Was Not Bought For Cash

Most students learn that the United States purchased Florida from Spain in 1819 for $5 million. It just isn't so.

Rembert W. Patrick, general editor of the University of Florida Press' Floridaiana Facsimile and Reprint Series, points out in the preface to "The Purchase of Florida" that, by the provisions of the Adam-Onis Treaty in 1821, Spain gave the United States title to Florida in exchange for American relinquishment of all claims to Texas. Not a penny changed hands.

Robert Bruce Fuller, who wrote "The Purchase of Florida" in 1906, was a pioneer in this field of Florida history, although his title was incorrect. His book, which was reprinted this year by the University of Florida Press as one of the Quadracentennial Editions of the Floridaiana Series, inspired other historians to research the facts of Florida's "purchase."

"The Purchase of Florida" was edited by Weymouth T. Jordan, head of the Department of History at Florida State University, who is now in Tubingen, Germany, on a Fulbright Fellowship.

A message from the Treasury of a free people

How to speak out for freedom today

Free men have never gone in much for silence. Even before the first thirteen States became United States, men were speaking for freedom loud and clear.

Today Americans speak out for freedom many ways—in Congress, in local government, in neighborhood activities. Some speak out for freedom in other languages, in other lands. And millions of Americans speak out for freedom every time they buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

Every Savings Bond you buy is an investment in freedom. While you're saving money for your own family's future, you're helping Uncle Sam tend to the business of keeping men free today.

Perhaps you don't speak out for freedom in the same tone of voice when you buy a Bond as Patrick Henry did in his famous speech. But you speak every bit as surely. And every bit as proudly.

Why not speak out for freedom now? Buy Bonds at the bank or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

Keep freedom in your future with
U.S. SAVINGS BONDS

WPB Street Cause Of Many Headaches

County commissioners promised Monday to resume planning on the Chase St. Extension in West Palm Beach if the city commission requests it.
 A week earlier, they had agreed to attempt to drop the project from the county's 15 million dollar road bond package after hearing protests over the alignment of the proposed street extension.
 The pastor of First Baptist Church, Dr. Jess Moody, had told county commissioners his congregation objected because the street would encroach on the church sanctuary's property.
 Reconsideration of the project came Monday after West Palm Beach City Commissioner George Williams appeared at the county commission meeting in the courthouse.
 Williams said the city commission wants the project to go through, and would vote to ask the county for reconsideration.
 County commissioners were advised by their attorney, Harry Johnston, that they could discontinue the project as long as the money allocated for it is used for another project in the bond issue package.
 The county commission took the position that West Palm Beach commissioners must decide if they want the job done or not, since the city is the one that would benefit most.

Why should you buy U. S. Savings Bonds when there are so many other good investments?

To help your country is one answer—and a good one. But Bonds have other advantages that make them worth your consideration.

For instance, they offer you just about the easiest way to save money; either with the Payroll Savings Plan where you just ask your employer to put part of your wages aside toward a Bond or through regular purchase of Bonds at your bank.

Another unique advantage of U. S. Savings Bonds is the way they stick with you. You can get your money any time.

But if you're like most people, you'll hang on to your Savings Bonds for the big things you want in your future.

And, of course, Bonds are a safe investment—as long as there's a United States of America.

Which brings us back to your country again. Bonds help defend freedom at a time when the enemies of freedom are stronger than ever.

Buy Savings Bonds. The banks or savings institutions that sell them don't charge you a penny for the service.

Let Your Money Earn 4 1/2% Payable Semi-Annually

New $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest on U.S. Savings Bonds

The Treasury explains why the new ones you buy and the ones you own now are better than ever

Q: How does the new $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest rate benefit me?

A: With Series E Bonds, the rate turns $18.75 into $25.00 fourteen months faster than the old rate. Your savings increase faster, because your Bonds mature in just 7 years, 9 months.

With Series H Bonds, the 10-year maturity period stays the same but more interest is paid you each six months. With both E and H Bonds the new rate works out to $2\frac{1}{2}\%$ for the first year and a half; then a guaranteed 4% each year to maturity.

Q: When did the new rate become effective?

A: June 1, 1959.

Q: Does the new rate change the Bonds I bought before June 1, 1959?

A: All older E and H Bonds pay more new—an extra $\frac{1}{2}\%$ from now on, when held to maturity. The increase takes effect in the first full interest period after June 1.

Q: Will the Bonds I own automatically earn their new rate?

A: Yes. You don't need to do a thing—just hold on to your Bonds.

Q: When my E Bonds mature, will they keep on earning interest?

A: Yes. An automatic 10-year extension privilege went into effect along with the new interest rate. This means your E Bonds will automatically keep earning interest after maturity.

Q: With the new interest rate, should I cash in my old Bonds and buy new ones?

A: No. The automatic $\frac{1}{2}\%$ increase makes it unnecessary—and in almost every case it is to your advantage to retain your present Bonds.

Q: How are series H Bonds different from series E Bonds?

A: The chief difference is this: You buy H Bonds at full face value and the interest is paid by Treasury check every six months for the life of the Bond. You buy E Bonds at 75% of face value and the interest accumulates to maturity. H Bonds provide income for living expenses, while E Bonds build a nest egg for the future. That's why many retired people hold H Bonds and families saving for, say, a child's education, buy E Bonds.

Q: In what denominations can I buy series E and series H Bonds?

A: E Bonds: $25 (cost $18.75), $50 (cost $37.50), $100 (cost $75.00), $200 (cost $150.00), $500 (cost $375.00), $1,000 (cost $750.00), $10,000 (cost $7,500.00).

H Bonds: $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. They are priced at face value.

Q: How safe are U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Savings Bonds are an absolutely riskless way to save. The United States Government guarantees the cash value of your Bonds will not drop, that it can only grow.

Q: What if my Bonds should be lost, stolen or destroyed?

A: You can't lose. Every Bond purchased is recorded by the Treasury. If anything happens to your Bonds they are replaced—free.

Q: Where can I buy Bonds?

A: Buy E Bonds at any bank—it takes only a few minutes. Buy them automatically through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. This Plan means you can have any amount you want automatically deducted every payday. The Bonds you buy by installments are delivered to you automatically, too. Your bank will take your order for H Bonds.

Q: How do I help strengthen America's peace power when I buy U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Peace costs money—money for military strength and for science. And money saved by individuals helps keep our economy sound.

YOU SAVE MORE THAN MONEY WITH U. S. SAVINGS BONDS

How Good Are Your Fishing Chances?

TALLAHASSEE—The odds are 8 to 1 against the fisherman that the average Florida fresh water game fish will end up on the end of a hook and line.

This probability rate of catching a fish has been established by the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission in announcing results of a four-year scientific study of fish conservation, their growth rates, migration, survival and rate of harvest.

The facts were established in the project involving the fish tagging program of the annual Schlitz Florida Fishing Derby in which all costs are defrayed by the Jos.

Schlitz Brewing Co.

Since the derby began in 1961, more than 6,400 tagged salt and fresh water fish have been caught and returned to state agencies by fishermen who received over $234,000 from Schlitz in awards. Prizes have ranged from $25 to $10,000.

Salt water studies under the program have been conducted by the State Board of Conservation which also has compiled several scientific publications on its findings.

The fresh water study revealed that 28,895 tagged fish were released and 3,586 were returned by fishermen for examination after being caught. Of these, 9,079 large mouth bass were released, and 2,537 returned to make up the largest catch of any tagged variety. Blue gills had the best record for escaping capture, with only 507 of 11,658.

CANAL POINT PTA

The Canal Point P. T. A. will meet December 14 at which time a Christmas program will be presented by the students.
